SHOW DETAILS

SPECIFICATIONS: Open to all two-dimensional artists with emphasis on high-quality work possessing precision, a strong sense of design & technique. All art submitted must be new work not previously shown at the Center. Framed giclee prints are acceptable.

JURY PROCESS: Artists are selected by a jury comprised of gallery owners and art collectors in the region. Artists will be notified of the jury's decision no later than one month before exhibition.

INSTALLATION: FAC requires that all two-dimensional work must be properly framed with wire hanger attached (no saw tooth hangers). FAC staff will install all of the artwork; FAC will prepare and mount gallery tags for the work. FAC reserves the right to withhold any work from display that does not meet established standards.

SHOW TERMS: A maximum of Twelve (12) pieces may be shown (dependent upon size). Accepted artists will receive specific delivery instructions. Inbound and outbound shipping costs are the responsibility of the Artist. Insurance is the responsibility of the artist. A 35% commission is retained by the Center on all sales. No refunds for cancellation after acceptance. We reserve the right to photograph work or copy slides for publicity purposes. Note: The Salon Gallery is sometimes used for private meetings and may not be available for viewing at all times the Art Center is open.

The Fallbrook Art Center is proud to offer a diverse range of exhibition space to accommodate for various art display environments.

The Salon Gallery offers an intimate space for regional artists to exhibit. Art displayed in the Salon Gallery is enjoyed by gallery visitors, meeting attendees, and participants in monthly poetry and literature reading. As a self-supporting, nonprofit art facility, the Center is dedicated to afford an opportunity for regional, emerging, and celebrated artists to exhibit at the Fallbrook Art Center.
